QUESTION PRESENTED

1. Did the Pennsylvania Supreme Court abuse its discretion and err in denying the Petitioner's application for a Writ of Mandamus, which sought to compel the Respondent court officers to permit the Petitioner access to the Pennsylvania Court of Common Pleas, to file moving papers and to obtain Rules Returnable and Dates Certain for Argument of her requests for relief, as required by the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure; where copies of the Petitioner's application for Mandamus relief were served upon the Respondents; and where the Respondents did not file answers to the Petitioner's verified allegations, thereby admitting allegations of the Respondents' impermissible conduct in refusing the Petitioner access to the court.

On Petition for a Writ of Certiorari to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia District

PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI

The Petitioner, Carolee A. Medico, respectfully prays that a writ of certiorari issue to review the Order of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, issued per curiam on on July 23, 1996, to Term and Docket Number 89 M.D. Miscellaneous Docket 1996.

OPINIONS BELOW

No opinions issued from the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. On July 23, 1996, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, per curiam, denied Petitioner's application for a Writ of Mandamus; at Term and Docket 89 M.D. Miscellaneous Docket 1996.

JURISDICTION

The judgment of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania was entered by an order issued on July 23, 1996.

The jurisdiction of the Supreme Court is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1257 (a) (relating to certiorari and final judgments or decrees rendered by the highest court of a state in which a decision could be had).

On July 23, 1996, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, per curiam, denied Petitioner's application for a Writ of Mandamus; at 89 M.D. Miscellaneous Docket 1996.

No rehearing was sought or granted.

The Petitioner respectfully certifies that pursuant to Supreme Court Rule No. 13, this petition is timely filed within 90 days of the judgment sought to be reviewed.

STATUTES INVOLVED

This case stems directly from the fundamental impermissible refusal of the Respondent Pennsylvania court officers to grant the Petitioner access to the Court of of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, Pennsylvania, by refusing to grant the Petitioner necessary Rules Returnable and necessary dates certain for Argument and for Hearing of the Petitioner's motions for relief pursuant to the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure.

The Due Process Clause to the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States states:

> .... nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure No. 205.2 (relating to the filing of legal papers with the prothonotary), states:

> No pleading or other legal paper that complies with the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure shall be refused for filing by the prothonotary based on a requirement of a local rule of civil procedure or judicial administration.

Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure No. 211, states:

> Any party or his attorney shall have the right to argue any motion and the court shall have the right to require oral argument. With the approval of the court oral argument may be dispensed by agreement of the attorneys and > the matter submitted to the court either on the papers filed of record, or on such briefs as may be filed by the parties. The person seeking the order applied for shall argue first, and he may also argue in reply, but such reply shall be limited to answering arguments advanced by the respondent. In matters where there may be more than one respondent, the order of argument by the respondents shall be as directed by the court.

Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure No. 1029, states:

> (a) A responsive pleading shall admit or deny each averment of fact in the proceeding pleading or any part thereof to which it is responsive. A party denying only a part of an averment shall specify so much of it as is admitted and shall deny the remainder. Admissions and denials in a responsive pleading shall refer specifically to the paragraph in which the averment admitted or denied is set forth.
> (b) Averments in a pleading to which a responsive pleading is required are admitted when not denied specifically or by necessary implication. A general denial or a demand for proof, except as provided by subdivision (c) of this rule, shall have the effect of an admission.
> (c) A statement by a party that after > reasonable investigation the party is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment shall have the effect of a denial.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On February 16, 1996, upon Petitioner's application to the Pennsylvania Superior Court for stay or injunction pending appeal, and for restoration of alimony and child support pendente lite pursuant to Pa.R.A.P. No. 1732(b), the Pennsylvania Superior Court entered per curiam an Order directing that:

> The application for stay is denied without prejudice to seek relief in the trial court. The trial court shall state its reasons for granting or denying the application as to its order which, inter alia, provided that the appellee satisfied his alimony and child support obligation.

The Order of the Pennsylvania Superior Court of February 16, 1996, is appendixed herein at p. 2a.

On February 22, 1996, Petitioner filed of record in the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, her application for stay or injunction pending appeal, and for restoration of alimony and child support pendente lite.

Petitioner's application for stay conformed in all respects to the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure and exact copies were served on all parties. However, the Respondent court officers refused to grant the Petitioner a necessary Rule Returnable and a date certain for Argument, as was their duty to do.

On March 19, 1996, Petitioner addressed her letter to Respondent Nancy M. Sobolevitch, Court Administrator of Pennsylvania, and advised her of the refusal of the Court Officers of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County to enter dates certain upon Petitioner's moving papers regarding her Requests for a Rule Returnable and date certain for Argument or Hearing of the aforesaid application for stay. A copy of the Petitioner's letter to the Pennsylvania Court Administrator of March 19, 1996, is appendixed at p. 3a.

On various occasions the Respondent court officers of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, Pennsylvania have systematically failed or refused to enter dates certain upon the Petitioner's moving papers which requested dates for Rules Returnable and for Argument or Hearing of the aforesaid application for stay; as is Petitioner's right pursuant to the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure.

On April 2, 1996, Respondent Judge Myers entered an Order, without opinion, denying and dismissing Petitioner's aforesaid application for stay, without necessary Rule Returnable and without necessary Argument, as required by Rule No. 211, of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure.

A copy of Judge Myer's Order is appendixed at p. 5a.

On April 11, 1996, the Petitioner filed a Petition for a Writ of Mandamus in the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania, seeking to compel the Respondent court officers to allow the Petitioner access to the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County. The said Petition was transferred, sua sponte, to the Pennsylvania Supreme Court based upon that Court's original jurisdiction of matters involving the Pennsylvania judiciary.

FACTS

Heretofore, on December 4, 1989, on an underlying divorce action filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County at Term and Number 2534-C of 1985, Respondent Judge Toole impermissibly failed to enter an order to compel the Defendant, Charles P. Medico, to produce necessary discovery as ordered by Respondent Judge Toole.

On December 4, 1989, Respondent Judge Toole recused himself from any case involving the Petitioner, and entered disposition indicating that he would request that the President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County assign another judge to the case.

From December 4, 1989 to January 1, 1991, Respondent Judge Toole failed or refused to request the President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County to assign another judge to the aforesaid divorce case after recusing himself.

From January 1, 1991, when Respondent Judge

Toole became President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, Respondent Judge Toole has continued to hold the said motion to compel discovery without disposition.

More recently, on November 8, 1995, Respondent Judge Myers has refused to hold Argument or Hearing upon the aforesaid motion to compel discovery of December 4, 1989.

The conduct complained of is impermissible and contrary to the due process and equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution; and the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure, specifically, Rule No. 205.2 (relating to the filing of legal papers with the Prothonotary); Rule No. 209 (relating to duty of petitioner to proceed after answer is filed); Rule No. 211 (relating to the right of a party to argue any motion); and Rule No. 1029 (relating to admissions of averments in a pleading when not denied specifically or by necessary implication).

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE WRIT

The legitimacy of the Commonwealth's monopoly over techniques of final dispute settlement is implicated where in this case the Petitioner alleges that Pennsylvania state officials responsible for judicial administration in the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, have unfairly and impermissibly denied Petitioner access to that court for the proper filing of her petitions for relief. By their failure to answer the Petitioner's allegations of their impermissible conduct in denying her access to the court, the Respondents have admitted the truth of the Petitioner's allegations pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. No. 1029(b).

In the underlying cases judicial proceedings have become the only effective means of resolving the disputes between the parties. Denial of access to the court for the proper filing of Petitioner's legal papers seeking relief first occasioned Petitioner's request for a Writ of Mandamus to the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, seeking that Court's assistance in invoking the right of access to the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, and the right to argue her motions.

Recognition of the Commonwealth's judicial framework illuminates the precise issue presented before the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, and in this request for certiorari. On more than one occasion, this Court, and other Courts, have recognized, due process requires, at a minimum, that absent a countervailing state interest of overriding significance, persons forced to settle their claims of right and property through the judicial process must be given a meaningful opportunity to be heard.

Early in this Nation's jurisprudence, this Court voiced the doctrine that, "[W]herever one is assailed in his person or his property, there he may defend." Windsor v. McVeigh, 93 U.S. 274, 277, 23 L.Ed. 914 (1876). Although "[m]any controversies have raged about the cryptic and abstract words of the Due Process Clause," as Mr. Justice Jackson wrote for the Court in, Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 70 S.Ct. 652, 94 L.Ed. 865 (1950), "there can be no doubt that at a minimum they require that deprivation of life, liberty or property by adjudication be precedent by notice and opportunity for Hearing appropriate to the nature of the case." Id., at 313, 70 S.Ct. at 656.

Instantly, the Petitioner has not agreed with the attorneys for other parties to dispense with argument nor to submit the matter to the court. By the conduct complained of, the Respondents Judge Toole, Court Administrator Wilbert E. Thomas and Senior Judge Jay W. Myers, have denied the Plaintiff due process and equal protection by refusing her the right to argue her motion in open court, where the conduct complained placed the Respondents and Defendants to the aforesaid motion for stay, in the position that they did not have to respond to a Rule Returnable or to argue in opposition to the said motion for stay.

STAGE OF PROCEEDINGS AT WHICH THE FEDERAL QUESTION SOUGHT TO BE REVIEWED WAS RAISED

The Petitioner has not raised the specific federal question regarding the due process and equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment before the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court nor before the Pennsylvania Supreme Court.

The Petitioner's original application for a Writ of Mandamus plainly raised the issue of due process and equal protection; particularly, her specific claims regarding Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure No. 205.2 (relating to the filing of legal papers with the Prothonotary); Rule No. 209 relating to the duty of the Petitioner to proceed after answer is filed); Rule No. 211 (relating to the right of a party to argue any motion) and Rule No. 1029 (relating to admissions of averments in a pleading when not denied specifically or by necessary implication).

AMPLIFICATION OF THE REASONS RELIED ON FOR ALLOWANCE OF THE WRIT

The Petitioner does not seek review of state court decisions which have gone against her. Her federal claim is completely separate and distinct from the domestic relations issues pending in the state court below. This request for a writ of certiorari is a separate action for redress of violations of her right to due process and equal protection, fundamentally denied by Pennsylvania court officers who have repeatedly denied her the right to be heard in open court.

This Honorable Court is not asked to enmesh itself with domestic relations issues to fairly adjudicate the Petitioner's federal claims. Review of the claim sought does not involve domestic relations issues; hence the federal domestic relations exception does not apply. The Petitioner's original Petition for Mandamus relief, dismissed out of hand by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, was plainly an attempt to obtain fundamental access to the Pennsylvania Court of Common Pleas to argue her petitions for relief; and if denied, to have a record from which to appeal her claims on the merits.

The Petitioner's request for a writ of certiorari has to do with fundamental, disparate, impermissible and unconscionable treatment at the hands of state court officials. It was plainly an abuse of discretion and fundamental error, for the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to refuse to grant the Petitioner's application for a writ of mandamus; especially, in light of the fact that none of the Respondents denied the Petitioner's verified allegations; thus, all of the Petitioner's allegations were deemed to be true.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Honorable Court grant her a Writ of Certiorari on the question of whether the Pennsylvania Supreme Court abused its discretion and erred in denying the Petitioner's Application for a Writ of Mandamus herein.

Respectfully submitted,

Carolee A. Medico

Dear Mrs. Sobolevitch,

I am writing with regard to all of the above actions now pending in Luzerne County Court; and more particularly, to lodge a complaint regarding my inability to fairly obtain dates certain for rules returnable and for hearings.

All the above cases are assigned to Senior Judge Jay W. Myers, specially presiding, by Order of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court.

Several weeks ago the Pennsylvania Superior Court entered an Order Per Curiam denying my petition for stay and for injunctive relief on the support and foreclosure actions above, without prejudice to my making application to the trial court.

I promptly filed my petition in Luzerne County Court, and sent a copy of same to Judge Myers. I have been waiting for more than three weeks for a simple Rule Returnable to be entered and for hearing date on a petition for stay and for injunction on the support and foreclosure actions above.

I ask that you would address this situation with a view to assigning a procedure for the Court Administrator of Luzerne County so that I may have access to the Court of Common Pleas in the same manner as any other litigant.

I have been for over one year continually frustrated in having the Luzerne County Court receive my petitions for relief and then have months go by before a Rule Returnable date is assigned and hearing fixed for dates certain.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

IN THE COMMONWEALTH COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA

CAROLEE A. MEDICO, Petitioner	:	CIVIL ACTION--LAW
vs.	:	PETITION FOR A WRIT OF MANDAMUS

PETITION FOR A WRIT OF MANDAMUS

COMES NOW, Petitioner Carolee A. Medico, and she respectfully moves this Honorable Court to enter a Writ of Mandamus directing the Respondents to allow Petitioner access to the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, for filing of legal papers and for obtaining dates certain for Rules Returnable and for Argument; and in support thereof Petitioner respectfully represents and alleges:

I. ORIGINAL JURISDICTION

1. Original jurisdiction of the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court is invoked pursuant to Title 42 Pa.C.S., § 761 (1) (relating to original jurisdiction of all civil actions against the Commonwealth government, including an y officer thereof acting in his official capacity), and also pursuant Title 42 Pa.C.S., § 761 (1) (c) (relating to original jurisdiction in cases of mandamus and prohibition to courts of inferior jurisdiction).

II. BACKGROUND

2. Petitioner's application for mandamus relief stems from the repeated failures or refusals of Respondents, Patrick J. Toole, Jr., President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County; Wilbert E. Thomas, Court Administrator of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County; and Jay W. Myers, Specially Presiding Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, to enter, of record, dates certain for Rules Returnable and for Hearings, upon Petitioner's application for relief to the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County.

3. Petitioner's application for mandamus relief also stems from the failure or refusal of Respondent Nancy M. Sobolevitch, Court Administrator of Pennsylvania, to properly supervise judicial administration of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, regarding Petitioner's access to that Court, after being made aware of the facts and requested to do so.

III. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

4. On February 16, 1996, upon Petitioner's application to the Pennsylvania Superior Court for stay or injunction pending appeal, and for restoration of alimony and child support pendente lite pursuant to Pa.R.A.P. No. 1732(b), the Pennsylvania Superior Court entered Per Curiam an Order directing that, "The application for stay is denied without prejudice to seek relief in the trial court. The trial court shall state its reasons for granting or denying the application as to its order which, inter alia, provided that the appellee satisfied his alimony and child support obligation." A copy from the record of the Order of the Pennsylvania Superior Court is annexed hereto, incorporated by reference and respectfully marked, "Exhibit A."

5. On February 22, 1996, Petitioner filed of record in the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, her application for stay or injunction pending appeal, and for restoration of alimony and child support pendente lite. Petitioner's aforesaid application for stay conformed to the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure and exact copies were served on all parties. A copy from the record of the aforesaid applications for stay is annexed hereto, incorporated by reference and respectfully marked, "Exhibit B."

6. The Petitioner's pleadings comply with the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure.

7. On March 19, 1996, Petitioner addressed a letter to Respondent Nancy M. Sobolevitch, Court Administrator of Pennsylvania, and advised her of the refusal or failure of the Court Officers of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County to abide by the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure and failure or refusal to enter of record dates certain upon Petitioner's moving papers upon her Request for a Rule Returnable and date certain for Argument or Hearing of the aforesaid application for stay. A copy of Petitioner's letter to the Pennsylvania Court Administrator of March 19, 1996, is annexed hereto, incorporated by reference and respectfully marked, "Exhibit C."

8. To the even date of the filing of this petition for mandamus relief, Respondents, Patrick J. Toole, Jr., President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County; Wilbert E. Thomas, Court Administrator of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County; and Jay W. Myers, Specially Presiding Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, have failed or refused to enter of record dates certain upon Petitioner's Request for a Rules Returnable and for Argument or Hearing of the aforesaid application for stay; as is Petitioner's right pursuant to the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure.

9. On April 2, 1996, the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County entered an Order, without opinion, denying and dismissing Petitioner's aforesaid application for stay, without necessary Rule Returnable and without necessary Argument.

(Myers, S.J.). A copy from the record of Senior Judge Myer's Order entered on April 2, 1996, is annexed hereto, incorporated by reference and respectfully marked, "Exhibit D."

IV. FACTS

10. Heretofore, on December 4, 1989, on an underlying divorce action filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County at Term and Number 2534-C of 1985, Respondent Judge Toole impermissibly failed to enter an order to compel the Defendant, Charles P. Medico, to produce necessary discovery as ordered by Respondent Judge Toole.

11. On December 4, 1989, Respondent Judge Toole recused himself from any case involving Petitioner Carolee A. Medico, and entered disposition indicating that he would request that the President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County assign another judge to the case.

12. From December 4, 1989 to January 1, 1991, Respondent Judge Toole failed or refused to request the President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County to assign another judge to the aforesaid divorce case after recusing himself.

13. From January 1, 1991, when Respondent Judge Toole became President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, to the even date of the filing of this petition for mandamus relief, Respondent Judge Toole has continued to hold the aforesaid motion to compel discovery without disposition.

14. More recently, from November 8, 1995, to the date of the filing of this petition for mandamus relief, Respondent Senior Judge Myers has refused to hold Argument or Hearing upon the aforesaid motion to compel discovery of December 4, 1989.

15. Instantly, on February 22, 1995, Petitioner filed of record in the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, her application for stay or injunction pending appeal, and for restoration of alimony and child support pendente lite. See, "Exhibit B."

16. The conduct complained of runs exactly contrary to the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure, including, inter alia, Rule No. 205.2 (relating to the filing of legal papers with the Prothonotary) and answers thereto; Rule No. 209 (relating to duty of petitioner to proceed after answer is filed); and Rule No. 211 (relating to the right of a party to argue any motion).

V. LAW AND ARGUMENT

17. The legitimacy of the Commonwealth's monopoly over techniques of final dispute settlement is implicated where in this case the Petitioner alleges that Commonwealth Officers responsible for judicial administration of the Pennsylvania Court of Common Pleas; and instantly, the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, have unfairly and impermissibly denied Petitioner access to the Courts for proper filing of her petitions for relief.

18. In the underlying cases judicial proceedings have become the only effective means of resolving the various disputes between the parties.

19. Denial of access to the Courts for the proper filing of Petitioner's legal papers seeking relief has occasioned Petitioner Carolee A. Medico's urgent Petition for a Writ of Mandamus to this Court regarding her instant request to invoke the right of access to the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, and the right to argue her motions.

20. Recognition of the Commonwealth's judicial framework illuminates the precise issue presented in this Petition. As the United States Supreme Court and other Courts, on more than one occasion have recognized, due process requires, at a minimum, that absent a countervailing state interest of overriding significance, persons forced to settle their claims of right and property through the judicial process must be given a meaningful opportunity to be heard.

21. Early in this Nation's jurisprudence, the United States Supreme Court voiced the doctrine that, "[W]herever one is assailed in his person or his property, there he may defend." Windsor v. McVeigh, 93 U.S. 274, 277, 23 L.Ed. 914 (1876). Although "[m]any controversies have raged about the cryptic and abstract words of the Due Process Clause," as Mr. Justice Jackson wrote for the United States Supreme Court in, Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S. 306, 70 S.Ct. 652, 94 L.Ed. 865 (1950), "there can be no doubt that at a minimum they require that deprivation of life, liberty or property by adjudication be precedent by notice and opportunity for Hearing appropriate to the nature of the case." Id., at 313, 70 S.Ct. at 656.

22. Pa.R.Civ.P. No. 205.2 (relating to the filing of legal papers with the prothonotary), states:

> No pleading or other legal paper that complies with the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure shall be refused for filing by the prothonotary based on a requirement of a local rule of civil procedure or judicial administration.

Pa.R.Civ.P. No. 205.2.

23. In this case Court Officers of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, including its President Judge, its Court Administrator, and the assigned Trial Judge, required Petitioner to "file" her legal papers with the Court, but have failed or refused to enter a date certain for Rule Returnable or for Argument, thereby estopping Petitioner from proceeding to enter rules or to argue her motions, as is her right and indeed her duty to do. Pa.R.Civ.P. Nos. 205.2; 209 and 211.

24. The device used by the Court Officers of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, including its President Judge, its Court Administrator, and the Trial Judge, Specially Presiding, is simply to (1) fail or refuse to assign dates certain for Rule Returnable and (2) fail or refuse to assign dates certain for Argument.

25. Exhibit B, annexed hereto, is Petitioner's Application for Stay or Injunction Pending Appeal and for Restoration of Alimony and Child Support Pendente Lite, Pursuant to Pa.R.A.P. No. 1732(b). The aforesaid application for stay has on its first page Petitioner's Rule attached, according to the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure, with a space provided for writing in of a date certain for Rule Returnable and a space provided for writing in of a date certain for Argument or Hearing.

26. At the time of the filing of Petitioner's aforesaid application for stay, Respondents Patrick J. Toole, Jr., President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County; Wilbert E. Thomas, Court Administrator of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County; and Jay W. Myers, Specially Presiding Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, failed or refused to assign dates certain for a Rule Returnable and for Argument or Hearing as is required by the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure.

27. On April 2, 1996, the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, in the person of Senior Judge Jay W. Myers, Specially Presiding, entered an Order denying and dismissing Petitioner's aforesaid application for stay, without Rule Returnable, without Argument and without determination whether a Hearing was necessary regarding issues in controversy.

28. The conduct complained of above runs exactly contrary to Pa.R.Civ.P. No. 211, which states:

> Any party or his attorney shall have the right to argue any motion and the court shall have the right to require oral argument. With the approval of the court oral argument may be dispensed by agreement of the attorneys and the matter submitted to the court either on the papers filed of record, or on such briefs as may be filed by the parties. The person seeking the order applied for shall argue first, and he may also argue in reply, but such reply shall be limited to answering argument advanced by the respondent. In matters where there may be more than one respondent, the order of argument by the respondents shall be as directed by the court.

Pa.R.Civ.P. No. 211. (Emphasis and italics supplied).

29. Instantly, the Petitioner has not agreed with the attorneys for other parties to dispense with argument nor to submit the matter to the court. By the conduct complained of, Respondents Judge Toole, Court Administrator Wilbert E. Thomas, and Senior Judge Jay W. Myers, the Plaintiff has been denied the right to argue her motion in open court, where the conduct complained placed the Respondents and Defendants to the aforesaid motion for stay, in the position that they did not have to respond to a Rule Returnable or to argue in opposition to the said motion for stay.

IN CONSIDERATION WHEREFORE, Petitioner Carolee A. Medico respectfully prays that this Honorable Court issue a Writ of Mandamus, as follows:

(1) directing the Respondents, they and each of them, to allow Petitioner access to the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County, for filing of legal papers and specifically requiring Respondents to issue dates certain upon Petitioner's legal papers for Rules Returnable and for Argument;

(2) directing the Respondents to pay to the Petitioner filing fees and other costs for prosecuting this lawsuit;

(3) and such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Carolee A. Medico
